PROJECTS

- Heart Disease Prediction

Developed a heart disease prediction model using a decision tree algorithm. This project showcases your data analysis and machine learning skills.

- Insurance Charges prediction

Created insurance charges prediction using linear regression. I collected and analyzed the data, divided it into train and test sets, selected and normalized the features, built and trained the linear regression model, and evaluated its performance on the test data

- Stock Data Analysis

I've developed a stock data analysis project using Power BI. It helps visualize and explore stock market data, making investment decisions
